Call for n. 1 position as librarian

at the La Pira Library on the history and doctrines of Islam (Palermo)

What is the La Pira Library in Palermo?

The La Pira Library is part of RESILIENCE – the European Research Infrastructure on Religious Studies – and aims to be one of the largest libraries in the world on the history and doctrines of Islam.

Modelled upon the seventy-year experience of the Fondazione per le scienze religiose (FSCIRE) in Bologna, it was born as a branch of the Dossetti Library, which, in terms of size and quality, has become an international reference for studies on Christianity and hosts a research centre that coordinates the European Research Infrastructure.

The La Pira Library, established in Palermo in the autumn of 2018, was founded thanks to the commitment of several Italian institutional actors (from the central government to the Archdiocese of Palermo). It aims at becoming the first hub in the Mediterranean dedicated to the study of the history of Islam and it aspires to implement a long-term cultural operation with the purpose of “healing” the critical issues of our societies by means of knowledge, thus becoming one of the key research institutions in the world where all the traditions of Islam are represented.

Its activity is carried out by full-time, permanent and resident research staff and group of librarians.
