

FONDAZIONE PER LE SCIENZE RELIGIOSE E BANCA D'ITALIA

Promote the FSCIRE 2020 CALL

RESEARCH FELLOWSHIPS

1. Fondazione per le scienze religiose (Fscire) invites applications for Postdoctoral Fellowships.

FELLOWSHIP

2. Fscire is looking for one research fellow to be involved in the project Teologia, pensiero economico e prassi commerciali: feneratio, ribā e tasso d'interesse fra cristianesimo e islam (Theology, economic thought and commercial practices: feneratio, ribā and interest rate in Christianity and Islam), co-funded by Banca d'Italia.
3. Fellowships are established in accordance with requirements defined by the policy of Fscire, its agreements with the Regional Government of Emilia-Romagna, the Italian Ministry for Education, University and Research, and Banca d'Italia.

Candidates may apply for the position of Junior Research Fellow (1 year, renewable once). Applicants must have obtained their doctorate after 15 June 2015.

The successful candidate will sign a research contract, equivalent to the Italian “Assegno di ricerca junior” (which amounts to an annual gross salary of € 23,500).

The contract defines a research programme in accordance with the research lines of Fscire; it might also include the publication of the candidate's doctoral dissertation during the second year of the fellowship.

All fellowships are residential. Research shall be conducted at Fscire, in the “Giuseppe Dossetti” Library in Bologna (Via San Vitale, 114).

RESEARCH TOPIC

1. Usury and interest rate in medieval Christianity: theology, economic thought and practices.

Research aims:

Framing theological debates in medieval Christianity on usury and the progressive definition of interest rate, and assess its impact on institutions, credit and commercial practices through case studies.

APPLICATION RULES

4. Applications should be sent to:

Fondazione per le scienze religiose “Giovanni XXIII”, via San Vitale 114, 40125 Bologna or segreteria@fscire.it by 15 June 2020.

5. Applications from all countries are encouraged. Equal opportunities policies are fully implemented.

6. Applications must include:

- i. The specification of the research topic for which the candidate is applying;
- ii. A full CV;
- iii. A research project proposal;
- iv. Publications in pdf format (including PhD Thesis);
- v. Official certification or self-evaluation of language skills both for modern and ancient languages;
- vi. The names of 2 possible research supervisors;
- vii. Two letters of recommendation from internationally acknowledged scholars. Please include their contact details.

7. Candidates must specify whether they are also applying for accommodation at the “Collegio Andreatta” in Bologna (limited availability for a period of maximum 3 months).

8. Candidates must specify whether they are willing to apply for Fscire membership: being a Member of Fscire does not change economic conditions or the general obligations of belonging to a permanent research community, including participation in the life of Fscire, also according to the opening hours of the “Giuseppe Dossetti” Library.

The status of Member offers the opportunity to participate in Fscire’s research programmes (including EU-funded and other competitive research projects), the chance to represent Fscire on other boards or initiatives, teaching opportunities in Italy and abroad, as well as full rights in terms of the acquisition of books, benefits, and travel funding.

EVALUATION PROCESS

9. Applications are evaluated by a commission of four scholars (including at least one of the members of Fscire), appointed by the President of Fscire.

10. Members of Fscire may be consulted during the evaluation process, according to their experience in the research pipelines.

11. Applicants may be invited by the Secretary General of Fscire to an interview or meeting

(in person or via internet) during the evaluation process. Expenses will be covered.

12. The final evaluation of the commission will be approved by the Board of Trustees of Fscire and will be unappealable.

REGULATIONS AND FOLLOW UP

13. The postdoctoral fellowship will be attributed according to Italian private law and does not establish a contract as a subordinate employee (“lavoro subordinato”).

14. Upon signing the contract, successful applicants must not be bound by other employment contracts with universities or research centres. Grants and funds approved by the Scientific Committee of Fscire and aiming to increase the international experience of Fellows may be accepted and negotiated among institutions.

15. All fellowships are residential and place great emphasis on the exchange of ideas and on the spirit of community among Fellows who live and work in proximity. Fellows are expected to be present during the entire period of their fellowship, except for religious or civil holidays. Longer leaves must be communicated to, and agreed upon with, the Secretary General of Fscire.

16. Successful non-EU applicants will be assisted in the procedures for the request of a visa and other permissions. Such procedures may cause a delay in signing the contract.

17. The fellowship salaries are regulated by art. 4 L. 476/1984 (fiscal treatment), art. 2, c. 26 and ff. L. 335/1995 and following updates, DM MLPS 247/2007 (maternity leave), and art. 1, c. 788 L. 296/2006 (sick leave).

18. The Scientific Committee, prospective supervisors, and the Secretary General of Fscire will monitor the scientific results of the projects. The Secretary General may ask the Scientific Committee to withdraw or renew the fellowships.

Bologna, 25 May 2020

Fondazione per le scienze religiose

Via San Vitale, 114

40125 Bologna Italia

con il contributo di

Banca d'Italia

Miur – Resilience