About VEREAD

Virtual Exchanges in Religious Euro-African Dialogue (VEREAD) is an Erasmus project funded by the European Union (EU). The project brings together a consortium of universities from Europe (Poland, Italy, Netherlands, and France) and Africa (Kenya, Uganda, Tanzania, South Africa and Zimbabwe). Among other activities, the project aims at stimulating, especially through the virtual mode, cross-cultural communication and knowledge transmission by promoting discussion and interaction among students and staff from different cultural backgrounds and countries; creating, as well as, opportunities for team-work offered through short webinars, workshops and conferences
